1. FEDERAL HEALTH BENEFITS OPEN SEASON ENDS
DECEMBER 31

The following information concerns annuitants with current Federal health benefits coverage. If you do not have Federal health benefits coverage please disregard this information. The 2007 Federal Benefits Open Season will be held from November 12 through December 31, 2007. If you are satisfied with your current coverage and you wish to continue it through 2008, you do not need to do anything further at this time.

FEHB Program participants will be able to choose from 283 health plan choices in 2008. There are seventeen (17) nationwide Fee-For-Service options [including two High Deductible Health Plan (HDHP) options and one Consumer Driven Health Plan (CDHP) option]. In the Washington, D.C. area, there will be 29 choices [including five HDHPs with health saving accounts/health reimbursement arrangements choices and two CDHP choices].

Fourteen (14) health plans will no longer participate in the FEHB Program after December 31, 2007. Also, one plan will reduce a small part of its service area by withdrawing from that area effective December 31, 2007. Their enrollees will have to select a new plan during Open Season.

Enrollees will know whether their plan has been terminated from two sources. First, the Office of Retirement will notify participating Foreign Service annuitants of plan terminations. Second, all terminating plans are required to mail a notice to their members advising them of their decision to withdraw from the program.

We have enclosed the 2008 Guide to Federal Employees Health Benefits Plans for Federal Retirees and Their Survivors with this mailing. Open season guides and plan brochures are available on OPM's website, <http://www.opm.gov/insure/health>. These guides provide general information about changing your enrollment. They also summarize and compare the benefits of all plans in the FEHB Program. They explain the adjustment in the premiums, if any. Please contact the plans directly at the telephone number listed in the 2008 Guide to Federal Employees Health Benefits Plans for Federal Retirees and Their Survivors if you have any questions.

If you decide to change your enrollment, you must submit your completed Health Benefits Registration Form SF-2809 (see next page) by December 31, 2007. Please send completed form to:

2. FSPS ANNUITY SUPPLEMENTS ARE AFFECTED BY EARNINGS

The Foreign Service Pension System (FSPS) annuity supplement is a benefit paid until age 62 to certain FSPS annuitants who retired before age 62 and were entitled to an immediate annuity [other than those who retired at their Minimum Retirement Age (MRA) with at least 10 years of service]. The annuity supplement is subject to an earnings test similar to the one applied to Social Security benefits.

If you retired before you reached your MRA you do not need to report your earnings. You will continue to receive the annuity supplement until you reach your MRA regardless of your earnings. See the form DS 5026 that follows to determine your MRA.

If you were eligible for an annuity supplement at retirement, please read the information below and complete form DS 5026 which follows. If you have any questions about your FSPS annuity supplement, please contact Ms. Jacqueline Long at (202) 261-8960 or LongJL2@state.gov.

Eligibility and Earnings Test

Payment of the annuity supplement ends at age 62. It ends before age 62 when a retiree's outside earnings reach a level that would bar payment of a Social Security benefit. In general, if a retiree had earnings "from wages or self-employment" that exceeded $12,960 in calendar year 2007 after retirement, the annuity supplement is reduced or eliminated. Income for the purpose of the earnings test includes earnings after your date of retirement derived from employment in the public or private sector, including WAE (when actually employed) appointments, income from personal services contracts, etc. Income for this purpose does not include salary earned before retirement, annuity benefits, Social Security or unearned (investment) income. For self-employment, reportable income is net income.

Reductions and Termination

A reduction in, or termination of, the supplement is based on excess earnings in the previous year. If it is determined that your supplement must be reduced or terminated, any supplement amounts that are paid for the period after December 31, 2007 must be repaid to the Foreign Service Retirement and Disability Fund.

The annuity supplement stops at the end of the month prior to your 62nd birthday, whether or not you are entitled to, or apply for, Social Security benefits at that time. If the DS-5026 is not received by HR/RET by January 10th to establish continuing eligibility based on earned income, HR/RET must assume that you are no longer eligible to receive the supplement and must terminate payment. The completed DS-5026 should be sent to:

If you do not respond to the questionnaire by the 10th of January, your FSPS Annuity Supplement will be terminated beginning with the payment you will receive on the first business day of the month in February.

3. IMPORTANT ADVICE FOR FOREIGN SERVICE ANNUITANTS

A. REVIEW YOUR DESIGNATION-OF-BENEFICIARY FORMS

The purpose of completing a form to designate a beneficiary is to name the beneficiary of any lump sum payments that may be payable following the death of an employee. In general, a retiree who has declined to elect a survivor benefit for a spouse at retirement, or who has declined to elect the maximum survivor annuity for a spouse at retirement may, within 18 months of retirement, elect a survivor benefit or increase the earlier election to one of a maximum survivor benefit. There is, however, a substantial increase in the initial cost of an increase in a survivor election under this provision.

A common error is thinking that the FEGLI life insurance "Designation of Beneficiary" form covers everything. This is not the case! Every retiree may complete up to three "Designation of Beneficiary" forms for: (1) lump sum retirement payments, (2) life insurance benefits, and (3) the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP).

Three forms -- SF-2808, SF-3102, and DS-5002 -- are "Designation of Beneficiary" forms for retirees. Using these forms, annuitants can name heirs to receive unpaid annuity/lump sum benefits which may become payable from the Civil Service or Foreign Service retirement systems.

If an employee fails to execute a "Designation of Beneficiary" form, the law provides for automatic payment of benefits by order of precedence: (1) if there is no beneficiary, to the surviving spouse, (2) if none of the above, to the child or children, (3) if none of the above, to the parents in equal shares or the entire amount to the surviving parent, (4) if none of the above, to the duly appointed executor or administrator of the estate, and (5) if none of the above, to such other next of kin.

The advantage of completing a "Designation of Beneficiary" form, besides the ability to designate a specific individual, is that benefits can usually be adjudicated more quickly as there is no question of entitlement. "Designation of Beneficiary" forms may have to be updated as potential heirs are born and named heirs pass away.

Retirees are reminded to keep "Designation of Beneficiary" forms current and to retain a copy of the current designations--which have been signed and dated by the personnel office. These should be kept with your important papers and should be part of your estate planning.

B. REPORT DEATHS OF ANNUITANTS IMMEDIATELY

Have you ever wondered how much trouble your survivors will have in collecting your benefits under the Foreign Service Retirement System (FSRDS) or Foreign Service Pension System (FSPS)? If you are insured under the Federal Employees' Life Insurance Program (FEGLI), do you know how your beneficiaries would collect any benefits? Also, what about Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) coverage for your survivor(s)?

Put your mind at ease. You can help your loved ones by providing them with a copy of this information and retaining this document with your insurance policies, retirement documents, and other important papers. By doing this, you will be providing an invaluable service to your survivors or your executor/personal representative who will handle your estate.

In the event of the death of an annuitant or survivor, please notify:

Office of Retirement (HR/RET),
Room H-620, SA-1, Department of State,
Washington, DC 20522-0108
(Telephone: 202-261-8960, Toll-Free: 866-224-9053, Fax: 202-261-8988).

We cannot accept a collect telephone call; if our telephone receptionist is provided with the full name of the deceased annuitant, the name of the caller and the telephone number with the area code, a Retirement Counselor will return the call promptly. Notifying the Office of Retirement immediately of the death of the annuitant enables this office to begin assisting the person(s) entitled to survivor benefits. The letter or telephone notification should include the full name of the deceased annuitant, date of birth, exact date of death, address, Social Security number, and relationship of the person(s) who may be entitled to survivor benefits.

On receipt of this information, the records of the deceased annuitant will be examined and an application will be sent to the person(s) entitled to benefits. Information will be provided on benefits from the Foreign Service Retirement System(s) (FSRDS or FSPS), Federal Employees Group Life Insurance (FEGLI), and the Federal Employees Health Benefits Program (FEHB).

Return any uncashed annuity checks (if there is no surviving spouse) to:

Retirement Accounts Division, Department of State,
1969 Dyess Avenue, Building B, Charleston, SC 29405
(Telephone: 843-308-5552)

Any accrued annuity paid to the annuitant on the date of death will be included in the benefits to the otherwise eligible survivor annuitant(s).

Complete and return the application for death benefits form, which will be sent to the survivor/executor/personal representative as soon as the Office of Retirement learns of the death of a Foreign Service annuitant. The application form must be properly completed and returned to the Office of Retirement.

Obtain several certified copies of the annuitant's death certificate and transmit one with the application for death benefits. Other copies will be required for the FEGLI coverage, each private insurance coverage policy, and any other claims submitted by the survivor, executor, or personal representative.

The death certificate provides positive proof of the exact date of death. If other evidence is needed, it will be specifically requested. (This may include copies of marriage certificates, birth certificates, divorce decrees, death certificates of deceased children or spouses, court orders for change in name, or other documents which establish identity or relationship.)

File a Claim with Federal Employee Group Life Insurance (FEGLI). If the deceased annuitant had life insurance coverage under FEGLI, HR/RET will certify the date of death to the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), administrator of this life insurance program. OPM in turn will send the appropriate instructions and claim forms to the designated beneficiary (or beneficiaries) on record in the annuitant's official insurance file.

If the survivor has not received the letter of instruction and the claim forms within five weeks of the date of death of the annuitant, he/she should write directly to the Office of Personnel Management, Attention: CSI/LI/Roll Maintenance, Employee Service and Records Center, P.O. Box 45, Boyers, PA 16017. Please include the full name of the annuitant, the exact date of birth, the name of the retirement system (FOREIGN SERVICE RETIREMENT SYSTEM), and the annuitant's identification number which is prefaced by the letters CSI-. This number can be found on the insurance certification document sent by OPM to the annuitant after retirement, and in our letter of instructions.

Continue Federal Employee Health Benefits (FEHB) Coverage. Eligible survivors may continue the deceased annuitant's FEHB health insurance coverage provided that:

- (1) The annuitant was enrolled under self and family coverage at the time of death; and
- (2) at least one family member is entitled to an annuity.

C. REPORT CHANGES IN MARITAL STATUS

All annuitants (retirees and survivors) are asked to keep the Office of Retirement informed of any change in marital status. Delays in reporting these changes may defer or prevent important adjustments in benefits, such as:

- Spouses who divorce may be entitled to continuation of health insurance coverage through the FEHB Program.
- A retired annuitant who had elected a survivor annuity for a spouse and whose marriage terminates by death or divorce, may be entitled to an increase in annuity, effective the first of the month after the one in which the marriage terminated. If the marriage terminated by divorce, the former spouse may qualify for part of the retiree's annuity and/or survivor benefits.
- An annuitant under the "old" retirement system, the Foreign Service Retirement and Disability System (FSRDS), who marries after retirement and who had not declined to elect a survivor benefit for a spouse at retirement may, in general, elect a survivor annuity for a spouse married after retirement, provided the election is made within one year of marriage. The election of a survivor annuity is effective after nine months of marriage, but the reduction in the retiree's annuity is effective after one year of marriage.
- An annuitant under the "new" retirement system, the Foreign Service Pension System (FSPS), who marries after retirement may, in general, elect a survivor annuity for a spouse married after retirement, provided the election is made within two years of marriage. The election of a survivor annuity is effective after nine months of marriage, but the reduction in the retiree's annuity is retroactive to the commencing date of the annuity, or the last date a reduction was in effect for a prior spouse. Interest on the retroactive reduction is also charged. A new law allows the retroactive amount to be paid by a monthly deduction from the employee's annuity.

- Surviving children who are receiving annuity benefits lose their eligibility for annuity benefits, upon marriage.
- Loss of annuity entitlement due to remarriage may also affect eligibility for continuation of insurance coverage.

D. UNDERSTAND THE TAX TREATMENT OF YOUR ANNUITY

Your income tax liability is your individual responsibility. If you have any questions, you should consult a tax advisor, or the Internal Revenue Service, not the Office of Retirement. The following information from IRS publications is provided as general information only.

- Income tax liability - If you are retired from the federal government, or if you are the survivor or beneficiary of a federal employee or retiree who died, you must pay federal income tax on your benefits except for the portion attributable to the mandatory contributions you made to your retirement system, known as the tax-free portion.
- Tax-free portion – To calculate the tax-free portion of either your Foreign Service or Civil Service annuity, you can use the worksheet included in IRS Form 1040 or the worksheet in IRS publication #721, “Tax Guide to US Civil Service Retirement Benefits”.
- Alternatively, there is a tax-free calculator on the Office of Personnel Management website http://apps.opm.gov/tax_calc/index.cfm. You may use the OPM calculator to determine the tax-free portion of either Foreign Service or Civil Service annuities.
- Once you have calculated the tax-free portion of your monthly annuity, that amount stays the same for the life of your annuity unless a life event, such as death or divorce, changes your provision for a survivor annuity. The amount you can deduct the first year you are retired will be prorated according to the number of months you are in retirement status.
- The Retirement Accounts Division mails new Foreign Service retirees a retirement contribution letter no later than January 31 of the year following their retirement. Annuitants should retain this important document in their personal records because the entire amount of contributions made over the span of one's career cannot be recovered in a single tax-year.
- If you do not receive a letter from the Retirement Accounts Division with the amount of your mandatory retirement contributions by February 15 of the year following your retirement, you should contact the Retirement Accounts Division at RAD2@state.gov; or call the Payroll Customer Support Center toll-free on 1-800-521-2553, Monday through Friday, 8:30am to 4:30pm.

- Withholding taxes - Your annuity is subject to federal income tax withholding, unless you choose not to have taxes withheld. If you choose not to have tax withheld, or if you do not have enough tax withheld, you may have to make estimated tax payments. You may also owe a penalty if your withholdings and estimated tax payments do not cover most of the tax shown on your return.
- 1099-R – Federal annuitants will receive a 1099-R by mail every year, normally by January 31. This document contains information on the total amount of annuity payments that you received during the preceding tax year and the amount that was withheld for taxes.
- After January 31, Foreign Service annuitants can obtain a copy of their 1099-R through www.EmployeeExpress.gov . Civil Service annuitants can obtain a copy of their 1099-R through OPM’s website at <https://www.servicesonline.opm.gov/> . Annuitants need a personal identification number issued by OPM to access these websites.
- FS Disability retirement - Employees who joined the Foreign Service prior to September 25, 1975, and who retire on disability are not subject to Federal income tax. Employees who joined after that date are subject to the same taxation rules as other annuitants.
- Lump sum payments – A lump sum payment for unused annual leave is treated as a salary payment. It is taxable as wages in the tax year during which you receive it. Withholding tax will be deducted from your lump sum payment.
- Refunds – If you leave Federal service and are not eligible for an immediate annuity you can choose to receive a refund of the money in your retirement account. The refund will include both regular contributions and interest. The portion of the refund that consists of contributions is not taxable, but interest earned on contributions is taxable.
- Interest on contributions - A refund of contributions after 35 years of service is taxable in the tax year it is distributed unless you roll it over to a traditional IRA or another qualified retirement plan. Voluntary contributions are not the same as employee contributions to the Thrift Savings Plan.
- Thrift Savings Plan – All of the money in your Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) account is taxed as ordinary income when you withdraw it, since neither the contributions to your TSP account nor earnings have been included previously in your taxable income. How much and how often you choose to withdraw from your TSP account balance determines when you must pay income taxes on your withdrawals.

E. STILL TIME TO APPLY FOR THE PIT BUYBACK PROGRAM

In August 2005, the Director General announced establishment of the PIT (Part-time, Intermittent, or Temporary employment) Buyback program. Certain employees, and former employees, may purchase credit toward retirement for their service at U.S. missions overseas between 1989 and 1998. We invite those who may be eligible to participate to do so well before the PIT buyback program closes on August 29, 2008.

There is more information on program requirements on our website, www.RNet.state.gov, under frequently asked questions. You can download application forms which are under Forms, Prior Service Credit– Military and Civilian. If you have specific questions on your eligibility, please send them to RETServices@state.gov.

Qualified applicants must pay a deposit equal to the amount they would have contributed to the retirement system if they had been eligible at the time, plus interest, within 180 days of being notified of the amount they owe. If you have already received such a letter, please pay promptly to obtain service credit. Questions about payment of deposits should be directed to the Retirement Accounts Division at RAD2@state.gov.

In case you have any doubts, if you believe you may qualify, it is clearly to your advantage to apply for this benefits program. For a relatively small investment, you can either increase your annuity, or in some cases, qualify for an annuity you would not have received otherwise. If you increase your basic annuity, the value of your cost of living adjustments will increase during your retirement as well.

4. FEDERAL EMPLOYEE INSURANCE BENEFITS

A. TEMPORARY CONTINUATION OF HEALTH COVERAGE (TCC)

Effective January 1, 1990, certain individuals who lose eligibility to participate in the FEHB program became eligible to continue their FEHB coverage on a temporary basis. This law applies to children of FEHB enrollees who lose their coverage for reasons such as reaching age 22, and certain former spouses who would not otherwise be eligible to continue FEHB enrollment.

To acquire coverage, one must elect coverage within sixty days of the event which causes the loss of coverage (i.e., divorce or a child's 22nd birthday). The premium for those who acquire temporary FEHB coverage will be higher than the regular premium for FEHB enrollments because it will include both the employee's and government's share of the cost of the enrollment.

For more information about temporary coverage, please consult our website, www.RNet@state.gov. Here is the link to "Forms," FEBH -temporary continuation of coverage: http://www.rnet.state.gov/index.cfm?pg=frm&frm_sec=12

B. FEDERAL EMPLOYEE DENTAL AND VISION PROGRAM (FEDVIP)

The Federal Employees Dental and Vision Insurance Program (FEDVIP) is available to Federal employees eligible for the FEHB program and annuitants, regardless of FEHB status. The Office of Personnel Management has contracted with several domestic insurance carriers to make supplemental dental and vision benefits available to Federal employees and annuitants.

There are four nationwide and three regional dental carriers from which to choose. Most plans will pay 100 percent with no deductible for preventive care (Class A). The co-insurance (cost-share) varies for the other three classes – intermediate, major and orthodontic. Additionally, three vision plans will be available.

The premiums will vary by plan and by enrollment type (Self, Self + One, and Self and Family). This three-tier enrollment is a welcome change from the Self and Self & Family enrollment in the FEHB program. More information is available on the website of the Office of Personnel Management at www.OPM.gov/insure/dentalvision. You can also check the website for insurance providers, www.BENEFEDS.com or call 1-877-888-3337.

C. LONG-TERM CARE INSURANCE FOR FEDERAL ANNUITANTS

On September 19, 2000, legislation was enacted, which included “The Long Term Care Security Act”. Long-term care (LTC) insurance pays benefits to cover services that individuals may need because they are unable to care for themselves, because of an extended illness or injury, or due to an age-related disease, such as Alzheimer’s. LTC insurance can provide broad, flexible benefits for nursing home care, care in an assisted living facility, in-home care, adult day care, hospice care, and more.

Further information can be obtained by accessing the Office of Personnel Management’s website, www.opm.gov/insure/ltc.

To speak to a certified long-term care insurance specialist, call: 1-800-LTC-FEDS/1-800-582-3337, TDD: 1-800-843-3557, 8:00 a.m. – Midnight, Eastern Time.

D. FEDERAL EMPLOYEES GROUP LIFE INSURANCE (FEGLI)

*The following information concerns annuitants with existing FEGLI coverage.
If you do not have FEGLI coverage, please disregard this information. For more information on FEGLI, call 1-888-767-6738.*

If you were eligible to continue your enrollment in the FEGLI program when you retired, you may have selected basic coverage or basic coverage plus additional coverage under options A, B or C. (The basic insurance amount – BIA -- is the amount of your salary on the date you retired, rounded up to the nearest $1,000, plus $2,000.)

After you retire, your BIA does not change until you reach age 65. Once you retire you cannot increase your coverage, but you can reduce it. (This assumes that you have not assigned, i.e., transferred ownership of your life insurance, to another party. In that case, you cannot make any changes in your coverage.)

If you cancel your basic insurance (BIA) coverage, you will cancel all of your coverage. You must continue basic coverage to continue optional insurance coverage.

When you retired, you had three options:

- Option A adds $10,000 to your BIA.
- Option B adds up to five multiples of your salary on the date you retired rounded up to the higher thousand dollars.)
- Option C adds additional coverage only for family members. You could have purchased up to five multiples of $5,000, up to a maximum of $25,000, for your spouse, and up to five multiples of $2,500 up to a maximum of $12,500 for each child. You must have had basic coverage to purchase Option C.

If you do not know what type of coverage you have selected, you will find it indicated on your monthly annuity statement. Alternatively, you can send your query to the mailbox of the Office of Retirement, RETServices@state.gov and we will look up your life insurance coverage.

Reducing Your Life Insurance Coverage after Age 65

The amount you pay for life insurance depends on your age, any additional options you selected and the rate at which your coverage is reduced, once you reach age 65. You selected one of the following reduction plans when you retired: to reduce your basic coverage the month after the month you reach age 65 by 75 percent, by 50 percent or, you selected no reduction.

Option A: The amount of Option A coverage starts to reduce automatically to a face value of $2,500 when you reach age 65. You do not have to make an election.

Annuitants who have Option B or Option C coverage are reminded they have the following options to retain or reduce their coverage after they turn 65. If you want to make an election to reduce your Option B and Option C coverage, you must return the completed SF 2818 (use the form on the next page) to the Office of Retirement by the end of the month after the month in which you reach age 65.

Option B (multiples): You may elect No Reduction or Full Reduction for your Option B coverage. If you have more than one multiple of Option B, you may now elect No Reduction for some multiples and Full Reduction for the remaining multiples. No Reduction means premiums will continue for your lifetime (although premium rates may change in the future) and the value will never reduce (unless you change your election). You may change a No Reduction election to Full Reduction at any time. Full Reduction means premiums will end and the value will reduce by two percent of its original value for 50 months, beginning the second month after you reach age 65, until it reaches zero. You cannot change Full Reduction to No Reduction after reductions begin.

Option C (family): If you retired after April 24, 1999, you may elect No Reduction or Full Reduction for your Option C coverage. If you have more than one multiple of Option C, you may now elect No Reduction for some multiples and Full Reduction for the remaining multiples. No Reduction means premiums will continue for life (although premium rates may change in the future) and the value will never reduce (unless you change your election). Full Reduction means premiums will end and the value will reduce by two percent of its original value for 50 months, beginning the second month after you reach age 65, until it reaches zero.

You may change a No Reduction election to Full Reduction at any time, but you cannot change Full Reduction to No Reduction after reductions begin. Please submit the completed SF 2818 (see next page) to:

5. SENIOR LIVING FOUNDATION UPDATE

By Paula S. Jakub, RHU
Vice President, American Foreign Service Protective Association

The mission of the Senior Living Foundation is to provide support to retired Foreign Service personnel and their spouses, (including retired or divorced spouses) and, on the basis of need, to defray the cost of home health care services, senior housing, long term care insurance or other senior services that contribute to the health and security of the retired Foreign Service family.

Over the past several years we have reported on the continued work of the Senior Living Foundation. During 2006 the Senior Living Foundation passed the $1 million mark in grants. We have provided services to almost 500 individuals over a 14-year period.

In 2006 alone the Foundation made over $230,000 in grants, a far cry from the beginning, when it operated on a minimal basis, providing information and access to resources available through existing public and private programs. Now a social worker with extensive Foreign Service experience reviews each case to determine the best resources available for the individual. The intervention ranges from information on Meals on Wheels to assessment and planning with a geriatric care manager to assistance with living expenses. Thus, while many of the issues can be resolved with information on available resources, a growing number of clients present more complex needs for which the Foundation is able to provide financial support.

The majority of the calls we receive are for assistance with:

- Residential housing -Assisted Living Facilities, Nursing Homes;
- Medical services -medical and dental bills, prescription medications;
- Medical equipment -emergency response systems, hearing aids; and
- Basic living expenses – rent, groceries, heating costs.

In addition, the Foundation helps in other areas, like Home Health Care, transportation to medical appointments and long-term care planning and care management.

The Foundation has become a vital part of the Foreign Service family. The need for our services will continue to grow as more people experience the hard realities of growing older. Many who call upon the Foundation simply want to talk to someone who understands what it was like to be in the Foreign Service, a colleague who can reminisce about the old days. Our volunteers make calls and personal visits to these clients and help fill that void. If you would like to volunteer, or if you know someone we may be able to help with information, resources or financial assistance, please contact us by phone or e-mail at the address below.
